Judge Greer yesterday delivered his opinion in the case of J. F. Husbands is, the Taxing-District of Shelby county, appealed from President Hadden's court on a certiorari and supersedeas. This decision involves a question that has been frequently discussed. The facts upon which the question arose were as follows: J. T. The facts were that Husbands and a man by the name of Tom Scott had a fight on Jefferson street, in which Scott was badly used with a knife by Husbands, and it was thought for some time Scott would die. Upon the trial of the case Judge Hadden thought the probabilities of guilt sufficiently strong to bird Husbands over to the Criminal Court to answer an indictment for an assault to murder. He added to the charge of assault to murder that of disorderly conduct and fined the defendant $50 for the Taxing District. Subsequently the grand jury indicted Husbands for an assault to murder, and when the case came on to be tried in the Criminal Court the evidence.

Such men, as I said before, can nearly always secure better positions and in consequence most of the aspirants for that particular office are young lawyers who run with the boys, or older ones who have been failures at law. At the very best only mediocre talent can be hoped for until the pay is raised to a decent figure. Horrigan had plenty of money when he mounted the bench, and could afford to take the office. Greer has tried it long enough to find he cannot keep it and live, and says he will not be a candidate for re-election. You can depend upon it, he means exactly what he says.
